A CBF divulgou dear seasons da tabela do Campeonato Brasileiro de 2024

A CBF finally divulged the fixtures for the 2024 Brazilian Championship

The Brazilian Football Confederation (CBF) has finally released the fixtures for the 2024 Brazilian Championship.

The tournament will begin on April 15th and end on December 8th, with the same format as last year.

The reasons for the delay in publishing the schedule include attempts to fit dates with a minimum interval of 66 hours between games, as per the regulations, and preserving breaks during FIFA dates for the Brazilian national team.

The Brazilian Championship will end later than usual, on December 8th, due to the World Cup.

Thus, the championship will have 25 rounds, with the same number of teams and the same format as last year, and will end in eight rounds, as there are few days between the end of the group stage and the start of the round of 16 of the Copa do Brasil.

The CBF has preserved breaks during FIFA dates for the Brazilian national team, as required by FIFA - Confederations Cup.

In addition, the CBF will also organize friendly matches during the World Cup preseason.

Thus, the tournament will end on December 8th, as there are few days between the end of the group stage and the start of the round of 16 of the Copa do Brasil.

In another development, club officials are upset about the CBF's delay in releasing the tabela, which affects their sponsorship sales and marketing strategies.

The clubs want the CBF to provide them with more information about the dates and times of their games, so they can plan accordingly.

The delay has caused uncertainty and disruption to the clubs' preparations for the season, which is only ten days away.

Meanwhile, some clubs have decided to start announcing their squads and promoting their players, even though the fixtures have not been released.

Fans are eagerly waiting for the schedule to be released, as they are keen to know when their favorite teams will be playing.

While the delay has caused frustration among clubs and fans, it is hoped that the CBF will release the fixtures soon, so that all involved can start planning for the tournament.

This story is still developing. Stay tuned for further updates.
