Estudantes da Columbia University são presos após protestos pró-Palestina

Os estudantes sentaram-se no chão e cantavam enquanto a polícia bet395 equipamento anti-distúrbios se aproximava deles. Eventualmente, mais de 100 deles seriam presos; suas tendas, sinais de protesto e bandeiras palestinas foram colocados bet395 sacos de lixo pela polícia e jogados fora. Um {sp} mostrou oficiais e trabalhadores de manutenção da universidade destruindo alimentos doarados ao acampamento, certificando-se de que eles fossem incomestíveis. De acordo com jornalistas estudantis que relatavam da estação de rádio estudantil da Columbia University, WKCR, um estudante protestante preso perguntou à polícia se poderia ir à bet395 moradia para coletar medicação e foi negado; como resultado, eles sofreram choque. Os estudantes presos foram acusados de "incivilidade" no campus que eles pagam mais de R$60.000 por ano para frequentar.

Minouche Shafik, presidente da Columbia University, testemunha no Congresso

O dia antes de bet395 administração pedir à polícia de Nova York que invadisse o campus e prendesse seus estudantes, Minouche Shafik, a presidente da Columbia University, prestou depoimento perante o Congresso, dizendo que queria que bet395 universidade fosse um ambiente seguro e acolhedor para todos. Mas Shafik, que foi convocada a depor depois de ter perdido uma audiência no ano passado bet395 que os presidentes da Penn e Harvard foram questionados sobre bet395 insuficiente inimizade a estudantes pró-Palestina, parecia ansiosa para agradar o comitê controlado pelos republicanos. Os presidentes da Penn e Harvard que testemunharam perderam seus empregos pouco depois; Shafik claramente entrou na sala de audiência determinada a se manter no cargo.

Para esse fim, ela fez defesas tímidas da liberdade acadêmica, bet395 vez disso, favorecendo condenações entusiásticas dos protestantes, assentindo a distorções de má-fé dos estudantes como antissemitas e genocidas e tomando decisões pessoais, à vista, de remover alguns professores e funcionários pró-Palestina de seus cargos. A audiência adquiriu um tom febril, emocionado, que às vezes transbordava no esquisito. Rick Allen, um representante da Geórgia, perguntou a ela se queria que a Columbia University fosse "maldita por Deus". Shafik, evidentemente, levando a sério essa perspectiva, respondeu que não.

A invasão policial contra os estudantes da Columbia que se seguiu no dia seguinte pode ser vista como uma extensão da política de conciliação e cumprimento preemptivo com o direito anti-Palestina, anti-aluno Republicano que Shafik adotou bet395 seu depoimento. Na bet395 guerra contra a educação e nas exibições flagrantes de reclamação contra "desperdiçadas" universidades, a extrema direita tornou-se hostil à liberdade acadêmica, protestos pacíficos e vastas partes do discurso progressivo. Com bet395 disposição bet395 desatar violência estadual contra protestantes estudantis, Shafik provou ser uma aliada disposta. É justo enfatizar o que aconteceu na Columbia: a invasão não foi menos que o resultado de uma colusão entre uma administração universitária e políticos à direita para suprimir o discurso politicamente desfavorável.

Não todos os congressistas a quem Shafik testemunhou na quarta-feira ficaram satisfeitos com a abordagem da Columbia. Ilhan Omar, do Minnesota, interrogou extensivamente Shafik sobre a abordagem de bet395 administração ao discurso pró-Palestina no campus, observando com alarme que vários estudantes haviam sido suspensos por bet395 participação bet395 demonstrações pacíficas. "Houve um recente ataque aos direitos democráticos de estudantes bet395 todo o país", Omar disse a Shafik. No dia seguinte, a filha de Omar, uma estudante do Columbia's Barnard College, foi suspensa da escola.

O contexto geral: universidades, interesses politicos e liberdade acadêmica

As prisões na Columbia são, bet395 muitos aspectos, o produto não só do deslocamento
