Emmanuel Macron luta por la sobrevivencia de su agrupación centrista en las elecciones parlamentarias anticipadas en Francia

El presidente francés, Emmanuel Macron, advirtió recientemente que Francia corre el riesgo de una "guerra civil" si el partido de extrema derecha RN o la coalición de izquierda New Popular Front llega al poder. Sin embargo, su estrategia de generar un clima de miedo, en el que su grupo centrista se presenta como la única fuerza racional para contener el colapso de la sociedad francesa, se considera que está fallando.

Antoine Bristielle, director de opinión en el think tank Fondation Jean-Jaurès, dijo que, desde que Macron convocó las elecciones, el futuro político de Francia es extremadamente difícil de predecir. "Macron es más y más impredecible", dijo. "Es como si estuviera gobernando el país como si estuviera en una serie de Netflix – y tiene que poner un acantilado al final de cada episodio".

Un clima de ansiedad y preocupación

La falta de popularidad de Macron está en el centro de la carrera electoral. Los candidatos centristas de su partido Renaissance han publicado deliberadamente carteles sin su nombre o cara. "A la gente le desagradas", dijo el exdiputado del Renaissance Patrick Vignal, según el periódico Le Monde, resumiendo el sentimiento en el terreno. La mayoría de los centristas querían que Macron mantuviera un perfil bajo durante la campaña, para evitar la sensación de un referéndum contra el presidente, pero ha seguido dando entrevistas y haciendo comentarios públicos casi a diario.

Macron fue elegido por primera vez en 2024 con el voto de defender los valores progresistas y reformar el funcionamiento de la política francesa. Muchos de los votantes que ganó de centroizquierda se han sentido alienados durante su segundo mandato, después de que forzara un aumento en la edad de jubilación y una ley de inmigración rigurosa. La promesa de Macron, en una reciente carta a los franceses, de gobernar de manera diferente, no ha sido tomada en serio por los votantes.

Una ola de apoyo a la extrema derecha

Los expertos políticos afirman que Francia está entrando en aguas inexploradas. Si al partido de Le Pen le va bien y logra una mayoría absoluta de 289 escaños, formará un gobierno de extrema derecha y Macron tendrá que compartir el poder. Si el RN gana la mayoría de los escaños pero se queda corto de una mayoría absoluta, Macron podría enfrentarse a un parlamento colgado sin una mayoría estable para gobernar la segunda economía más grande de la UE y su principal potencia militar.

Christelle Craplet, directora de opinión en la empresa de sondeos BVA, dijo que "la dinámica para el RN es fuerte". Describió un estado de ánimo polarizado en Francia. "Muchos de los electores centrales de Macron se preguntan por qué disolvió el parlamento y convocó estas elecciones", dijo. "Hay incomprensión y ansiedad, especialmente entre los votantes mayores que forman el núcleo del electorado de Macron. Pero también, los votantes del RN sienten un sentido de esperanza y satisfacción en esta elección. Los votantes del RN quieren cambios. Las encuestas muestran que no se trata solo de ira o asco pasajero por la política, sino que adhieren a las posiciones del partido, diciendo que quieren ver cambios en Francia, que están decepcionados con los partidos políticos y sienten que vale la pena probar al RN".
