Julian Assange, fundador de WikiLeaks, disfrutará de la libertad después del acuerdo con fiscales de EE.UU.

El fundador de WikiLeaks, Julian Assange, tiene planes de nadar en el mar, descansar y disfrutar de comida como un hombre libre, después de pasar años luchando contra la extradición a los Estados Unidos, según su esposa.

Assange, de 52 años, fue liberado el lunes de una prisión en el Reino Unido, donde había estado luchando contra la extradición durante los últimos cinco años. Antes de eso, había buscado refugio en la embajada de Ecuador en Londres durante casi siete años.

Desde su regreso a Australia el miércoles, Assange no ha hecho comentarios públicos.

Pero su esposa, Stella Assange, ofreció una visión de cómo su esposo planea regresar a la vida normal, al pedir al público que le dé espacio para "descansar y recuperarse".

"Está saboreando la libertad por primera vez en 14 años", dijo. "Julian tiene planeado nadar en el océano todos los días. Tiene planeado dormir en una cama real, tiene planeado probar comida real y tiene planeado disfrutar su libertad."

Stella Assange se casó con el fundador de WikiLeaks mientras estaba encarcelado en la prisión de Belmarsh en Londres en 2024 y tienen dos hijos juntos.

Assange aún no ha sido reunido con ellos. "Pero estaban muy emocionados cuando se enteraron de que papá estaba volviendo a casa", dijo Stella Assange. "Tenía que decírselos gradualmente. Así que estaban muy, muy emocionados."

El acuerdo de culpabilidad por una conspiración

Después de negociaciones rápidas, Assange se declaró culpable de una conspiración para obtener y divulgar información de defensa nacional, en lugar de los 18 cargos que enfrentaba originalmente. En cambio, recibió una sentencia de "servido" y pudo volar de regreso a Australia.

Stella Assange dijo que un "avance" entre el equipo legal de Assange y los fiscales de EE.UU. ocurrió después de que el Tribunal Superior del Reino Unido dictaminara en mayo que Assange tenía derecho a apelar en su último desafío contra la extradición a EE.UU.
