Some time in the 1870s, Alice met her first husband Frank, a mining engineer and amateur poker player. The young couple moved to Colorado, and Alice immediately took to frontier life. Frank taught her how to play cards, and soon Alice was trading in on her talent. While her husband worked in the silver mines, she made friends in the saloons and gambling parlors.

When Frank died in a dynamite explosion, Alice had to find a way to make money. She turned her poker habit into a full-time job, clearing out visiting players and working as a dealer in local gambling houses. She eventually moved to Leadville, another booming mine town, to make a new life as a poker player.

From

there, Alice moved from boom town to boom town, building her reputation as a cigar-smoking, poker-playing hustler. She met her second husband Warren in the midst of a saloon brawl, and she temporarily gave up the gambling life to move with him to a small cabin, where they raised their four children. After Warren's death in 1910, however, she struggled to find the money for a decent burial. Eventually, she pawned her wedding ring and returned to the poker table to make ends meet.

In 1910, she opened her own place, "Poker Palace," in the San Juan Mountains. Rumor had it she married her third husband to settle a poker debt, and other gossip (true or false, historians don't know) had her arrested for bootlegging, manslaughter and even operating a brothel in the upstairs of her now-legendary establishment.

Even after her third husband's death,

Alice couldn't stay away from the poker table. She played alongside Wild West legends like Jesse James and Calamity Jane, and at times her winnings came to thousands of dollars. Alice later faced a small stint in prison for her involvement in a Poker Palace murder. The governor eventually pardoned her, citing her old age, but in return he demanded she retire from the gambling life.

But Alice continued playing poker, even into her supposed "retirement." Before she died in 1930, she claimed she won one of the biggest sums of her career: R$250,000, which would've amounted to more than R$3 million in today's dollars.

Candidato a la alcaldía del partido de extrema derecha Alternativa para Alemania es apuñalado en Alemania occidental

Un candidato municipal para el partido de extrema derecha Alternativa para Alemania fue apuñalado con un cutter en la ciudad occidental alemana de Mannheim, según las autoridades del miércoles.

Aunque la policía dijo que el incidente del martes por la noche no parecía estar motivado políticamente, ocurrió cuatro días después de un ataque con cuchillo contra miembros de un partido anti-islam en la misma ciudad, lo que elevó las preocupaciones sobre más violencia en el preludeo a la votación del domingo en Alemania para el Parlamento Europeo.

El ataque ocurrió después de que el candidato confrontara a un hombre que estaba "arrancando y cortando" carteles de campaña de Alternativa para Alemania

El ataque ocurrió después de que el candidato, Heinrich Koch, quien se postula para el cargo de alcalde en Mannheim, notara a un hombre "arrancando y cortando" carteles de campaña de Alternativa para Alemania, según Emil Sänze, portavoz del partido en el estado de Baden-Württemberg, que incluye a Mannheim.

Después de que Koch lo confrontara, el hombre lo atacó con un cutter, según Sänze. Koch fue llevado a un hospital para coser heridas el martes por la noche, pero se espera que se recupere por completo, según Sänze.

El sospechoso fue detenido y llevado a un centro psiquiátrico

Sänze dijo que Koch había filmado el altercado, lo que ayudó a la policía a hacer un arresto. La policía de Mannheim dijo que un hombre de 25 años que sufría "claros signos de enfermedad mental" había sido detenido y llevado a un centro psiquiátrico. La policía agregó que no creen que el sospechoso se haya dado cuenta de que Koch era miembro de Alternativa para Alemania, también conocido como AfD.

Preocupaciones sobre la violencia política

Las preocupaciones sobre la violencia política aumentaron en Alemania después del ataque anterior en Mannheim, el viernes, cuando un hombre con un gran cuchillo apuñaló a cinco personas que hacían campaña con un pequeño grupo anti-islam en la plaza del mercado central. Un oficial de policía que intentaba intervenir también resultó herido y más tarde murió.
