Virna Jandiroba pede lutas maiores após terceira vitória seguida no UFC

A brasileira Virna Jandiroba continuou cbet hd seqüência de vitórias no UFC eow!) e now she wants bigger fights. After defeating Lupita Godinez by unanimous decision in New Jersey, Virna called for tougher matchups, claiming she deserves the opportunity to face top-ranked opponents. Virna, 35, is a veteran of the MMA and has been a member of the UFC's elite since 2024. She has a 20-3 record and has earned her place as the fifth-ranked strawweight fighter in the promotion. Her victory over Lupita Godinez was her third in a row, and she believes it's time for her to take on the best of the best.

During the post-fight press conference, Virna made her case for a title shot. "I'm not here by accident. I've been working hard for 20 years. I deserve to be here. I'm very happy with my performance, but I think it's time for me to move on and face the top dogs in my division. I've earned that right and I'm ready for the challenge."

Virna acknowledged that she has had an easier path to the top, facing less experienced opponents, but now she wants to test her skills against the best. "I've been doing this for 20 years, and I've been in the UFC for three years now. It's time for me to face the toughest opponents. I'm ready to take on the challenge and show everyone what I'm capable of."

When asked who she would like to face next, Virna mentioned current champion Rose Namajunas, who she believes would be a great matchup. "I think Rose is an excellent fighter, and I believe that would be a great fight. Of course, I would also love to face Joanna Jedrzejczyk again. It was a closely contested fight, and I think a rematch would be awesome."

Virna's appeal for tougher matchups may have been heard, as the UFC seems to be opening up to the idea of giving her more significant fights. According to recent reports, she is likely to face either Joanna or Yan Xiaonan in her next appearance in the octagon. "I'm ready for whoever they give me. I believe I'm a tough opponent, and I'm ready for whatever comes my way."

With wins over Angela Hill, Lupita Godinez, and Marina Rodriguez, Virna is well-positioned to make a run at the title, and she's looking forward to the opportunity to showcase her skills at the highest level.

As the first Brazilian woman to compete in the strawweight division at the UFC, Virna hopes to set an example for other Brazilian female fighters, showing them that they too can make it to the top. "I want to open up opportunities for these women and show them that they can also achieve their dreams. It doesn't matter where you come from; with hard work and dedication, anything is possible".

Virna's dominance inside the octagon is just part of her compelling story. Outside of fighting, she is an entrepreneur, investing in real estate and opening her own sports store in Brazil. Her success is inspiring to many young Brazilian fighters, who now see her as a role model in the sport.

Virna's manager, Luiz Morais, also expressed his confidence in her abilities, stating that Virna is one of the most well-rounded fighters in the strawweight division, with a skill set that sets her apart. "Virna has a great boxing background, and her Jiu-Jitsu is also very impressive. Add that to her wrestling, and she's a complete fighter." Morais believes that Virna has a good chance of becoming UFC champion one day. There's no denying Virna Jandiroba's talent, and it's only a matter of time before she gets the opportunity to prove herself against the best in the business.
