Following a bitter, months-long feud over the company's proposed acquisition of Activision Blizzard, Microsoft and Sony have signed a deal to keep the multi-billion dollar Call of Duty franchise on PlayStation consoles. "We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and PlayStation have signed a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the acquisition of Activision Blizzard," Microsoft Gaming CEO Phil Spencer tweeted Sunday morning. "We look forward to a future where players globally have more choice to play their favorite games." The announcement comes after Microsoft on Friday defeated a last-ditch effort by the US Federal Trade Commission to scuttle the company's $68.7 billion purchase of Activision Blizzard. The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals declined to grant the regulator an emergency stay of a ruling that allows the deal to proceed in the US. The United Kingdom's Markets and Competition Authority (CMA) is the last remaining regulator of note opposed to the purchase, but the watchdog and Microsoft recently agreed to put their legal battle over the deal on hold and negotiate a compromise.

"From Day One of this acquisition, we've been committed to addressing the concerns of regulators, platform and game developers, and consumers," Microsoft President and Vice Chair Brad Smith tweeted in response to Spencer's post. "Even after we cross the finish line for this deal's approval, we will remain focused on ensuring that Call of Duty remains available on more platforms and for more consumers than ever before."

Spencer did not disclose the terms of Microsoft's deal with Sony, though Stephen Totilo of Axios later confirmed that it is 10 years in duration. Microsoft first offered Sony a 10-year deal to keep Call of Duty on current and future PlayStation consoles at the end of last year, though the Japanese electronics giant turned down the olive branch at the time. In an effort to secure approval from regulators, including the FTC and CMA, Microsoft went on to sign an agreement with Nintendo to bring the series to the company's future consoles. It also came to terms with cloud gaming providers like NVIDIA.

Before today, Jim Ryan, the president and CEO of Sony Interactive Entertainment, made clear he was strongly opposed to Microsoft's Activision bid. "I don't want a new Call of Duty deal. I just want to block your merger," Ryan told Activision CEO Bobby Kotick. "I told him [Kotick] that I thought the transaction was anti-competitive, I hoped that the regulators would do their job and block it," Ryan later said during his testimony at the FTC v. Microsoft hearing. But with the purchase all but set to move forward, Sony likely had no choice but to come to terms with its rival. Update 2:57PM ET: Added more information about the length of the agreement.

The iconic StatTrak! M4A4 | Howl is possibly the most expensive CS:GO skin and certainly the rarest. It's a contraband skin (the only one of this rarity), which means that you can't get it by opening cases anymore. In fact, the only way to obtain the Howl is through trading it with other players on skin marketplaces.

Ex-presidente Donald Trump participa de mitin en Phoenix, Arizona, a pesar de ser condenado por 34 delitos

En su primer mitin de campaña desde que fue condenado por 34 delitos, el expresidente Donald Trump recordó cómo recientemente pasó por un "juicio manipulado" con un "juez altamente parcial" a pesar de que no había cometido ningún delito.

Los casos judiciales a los que se enfrenta Trump se han convertido en un tema recurrente en sus discursos de campaña durante el último año, en los que frecuentemente le dice a sus seguidores que los cargos son una forma de interferencia electoral y están diseñados para frenar el movimiento Maga.

Críticas a la justicia y a Biden

"Esos tribunales de apelación tienen que intervenir y enderezar las cosas, o no vamos a tener un país en el que vivir", dijo.

Trump habló en un mitin organizado por Turning Point Action en la iglesia Dream City de Phoenix, un megacentro religioso al que él y Turning Point han asistido en el pasado. El calor extremo obligó a algunos de los asistentes que esperaban fuera a recibir atención médica por deshidratación.

Trump también criticó al presidente Joe Biden por una reciente orden ejecutiva que limita a los solicitantes de asilo, a la que calificó de "basura" y dijo que la derogaría en su primer día en el cargo, si gana las elecciones. Condenó a Biden por su gestión de la inmigración y repasó las políticas fronterizas de su administración, afirmando que su rival demócrata podría resolver los problemas de inmigración reinstaurando todas sus políticas anteriores.

Política fronteriza y elecciones

Mientras que la inmigración es un tema prioritario para los votantes en general, es especialmente agudo en un estado fronterizo como Arizona, que Trump mencionó en su discurso. Recordó con nostalgia los días del exsheriff del condado de Maricopa, Joe Arpaio, famoso por sus políticas de inmigración estrictas que dieron lugar a frecuentes demandas y acuerdos financieros. Y trajo al escenario al exfuncionario para que hablara de forma improvisada.

Trump besó a Arpaio en la mejilla y dijo: "No suelo besar a los hombres, pero lo besé. Teníamos una verdadera frontera con este tipo". Arpaio lo calificó como su héroe.

Arizona es un estado clave en las elecciones de este año, ya que Trump intenta recuperar el estado suroccidental una vez sólidamente republicano de Biden, quien lo derrotó por alrededor de 10.500 votos. El negacionismo electoral se ha apoderado del estado durante años: algunos republicanos que perdieron sus carreras en las elecciones intermedias de 2024 aún no han reconocido la derrota y han presentado demandas para intentar revertir los resultados.

El Comité Nacional Demócrata erigió un cartel publicitario en Phoenix el jueves, el primer anuncio pagado del partido que se centra en las condenas penales del expresidente. El anuncio dice: "Trump ya atacó la democracia de Arizona una vez. Ahora está de regreso como un condenado en lo penal. Está buscando venganza y represalias. Trump: no apto para servir".

Para los seguidores de Trump, las condenas penales se han convertido en un motivo de ira contra el otro bando y algo
