The Minnesota Vikings announced on Tuesday that they have signed their receiver Justin Jefferson to a four-year extension.

Although the financial terms of the agreement have not been disclosed, the Vikings said that the contract establishes a record for a player who is not a quarterback in the NFL.

According to Adam Schefter, of ESPN and Ian Rapoport of the NFL Network, and Tom Pelissero (FNN), the four-year contract is worth $140 million.

The $35 million per year that Jefferson will earn will take him beyond the defensive end of the San Francisco 49ers, $34,000,000. Nick Bosa is currently making $34 million annually to be the best player in the league.

In a post on his social media accounts, Jefferson described the extension of the contract as "the deal that I have been waiting for since I was a child".

"For my mother and father, thank you. This is a journey for all of us and you are still with us at every step of the way", Jefferson said. "For my brothers Rickey and Jordan:" All of them! You made me who I am today". This was a new step in our journey; A new phase in life. I always dreamed of this moment... And now I will share it with all of your blessings - that we have the dream!

The signing of Jefferson ends a period of uncertainty about his future in the long run in Minnesota, with questions about whether an organization could follow him after the end of the season.

Since he was drafted by the team in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft, Jefferson has become one of the most dominant players in the league. He has 392 receptions for 5,899 yards and 30 touchdowns in his four years in the league.

The 24-year-old player is one of five players with more than 5,000 yards received in his first four seasons. His 98.3 yards per game are among the highest in NFL history and he has at least 50 games in the American Football League (NFL).

In 2024, Jefferson really broke out as a star, leading the NFL in yards per game and being named the Offensive Player of the Year.

He was an All-Pro for the first team in 2024 and named to the Second Team, from 2024 to 2024.

"During the first four seasons of his career, Justin entrenched himself as the best receiver and one of the most electric players in the NFL", said Mark Wilf.

"He is a special talent, a committed team and an excellent representative of the Vikings. Justin won this contract; we are very happy for him to continue to be a Minnesota Viking for a long time."

Although Jefferson has not yet had much success in the playoffs, the team's preparation for the quarterback position with JJ McCarthy this year could change his future in the league.
