Hauntii: un juego de Moonloop Games que transforma los shooters en una aventura accesible y llena de ideas

Hauntii es un juego de Moonloop Games que, de la misma manera que Super Mario Bros: Wonder es un juego sobre saltar, es un shooter de doble palanca sobre el tema de un fantasma que busca comprensión en la vida después de la muerte. Este debut imaginativo y visualmente impresionante se transforma en una aventura expansiva y accesible llena de acertijos, sorpresas e ideas.

Interpretas a un espíritu recién fallecido varado en las playas negras de un más allá purgatorial, sin recuerdos de tu identidad en tu vida pasada. A medida que avanzas por senderos de luz blanca, surgen dos objetivos para que los persigas: descubrir más sobre quién eras antes de morir y perseguir a una figura angelical misteriosa que siempre se te escapa, como una cierta princesa que falta en un cierto castillo.

Aunque el juego de Hauntii implica algo de movimiento rápido (por ejemplo, solo puedes moverte con seguridad a través de áreas iluminadas, lo que te obliga a saltar entre sombras), se trata más de un juego de acertijos que de una experiencia basada en reacciones. Su gancho es que los proyectiles verdes fantasmales que puede disparar también pueden poseer enemigos y objetos. Por ejemplo, poseer un árbol (sí, el más allá tiene árboles) te permite sacudirlo, lo que hace que caigan motas de luz que se derraman en el suelo, creando nuevos caminos entre áreas oscuras.

Usas estos poderes de posesión, junto con tu disparo y movimiento, para buscar estrellas coleccionables ocultas en las zonas de mundo abierto del juego. Puedes poseer un escarabajo (el más allá también tiene escarabajos) para subir a un árbol y recoger una estrella de su copa, o tomar el control de un perro fantasmal para reunirlo con su dueño, recibiendo una estrella como recompensa. Cada estrella que recolectas se puede insertar en constelaciones que te permiten actualizar tus habilidades, desbloquear nuevas áreas y descubrir más sobre tu amnesia espectral. Si todo esto suena un poco ... extraño, aún no has oído la mitad de la historia. La representación de Hauntii de la vida después de la muerte es bastante curiosa. El segundo acto tiene lugar en un circo de muertos abarrotado, con tu poseyendo vastas montañas rusas en bucle. Y si bien el juego tiene un tono trágico, desde la hermosa melodía que suena cuando recolectas una estrella hasta las melancólicas miradas a la vida que perdiste, también está lleno de personajes excéntricos y humor absurdo.

También es sublime desde el punto de vista artístico. El estilo de arte monocromo y puntillista puede parecer sencillo, pero se trae a la vida a través de animaciones encantadoras. También construye impresionantes paisajes a partir de su estética simple. El mencionado carnaval es uno, pero también presenta vastos paisajes urbanos que ondulan debajo de ti a medida que cruzas los radios que sobresalen del centro del juego. Más tarde, exploras un desierto lleno de ruinas donde la arena de tinta se desplaza alrededor de tu espectro a medida que se mueve.

Es una obra maestra artística, retenida de la grandeza por algunos molestos gremlins. La perspectiva isométrica, combinada con la falta de una función de zoom en el mundo del juego, puede hacer que sus zonas más grandes sean frustrantes de navegar. Además, si mueres en combate, reinicias con solo parte de tu salud restaurada, lo que te obliga a buscar artículos que restauran la salud cada vez. Y si bien el mecanismo de posesión siempre es divertido y se implementa de manera inventiva, los acertijos en sí son un poco demasiado fragmentarios para que el juego forje algo realmente ingenioso a partir de ellos.

Sin embargo, Moonloop Games logra su intento artístico de elevar el shooter de doble palanca humilde. En un mes ya abarrotado de joyas independientes, Hauntii es otra joya para agregar a la pila reluciente.
