MADRI (Reuters) - Adolescents Lamine Yamal and Endrick stood out when Brazil drew 3-3 with Spain on Wednesday in the international friendly "One Skin", created to highlight the fight against racism after a series of insults to the attacker of Real Madrid, Vinícius Júnior.

Vinícius was relatively quiet in a sports betting academy match in which Brazil equalized with a penalty converted by Lucas Paquetá in stoppage time after the exit of Rodri, in the 87th minute of the World Cup (PB), putting Spain ahead.

Brazil had gathered from two goals below with an equalizer marked by the future teammate of the team Endrick, the Palmeiras player who had made his sports betting academy debut in the ranking just three days.

The Spanish formation was led by an attacker from Barcelona, Yamal 16 years old who helped establish three objectives and received a permanent ovation from the crowd at Estádio Santiago Bernabéu in Madrid when he was substituted near the end.

He was disappointed in tears while talking about the continuous racist insults he is subjected to in Spain, saying he is losing his desire to continue playing but promising to continue his fight against racism.

Vinícius was applauded with a high voice when he substituted the Brazilian of 23 years, captain of the selection on Wednesday (27) and received some of the highest praises to present his name before the match.

The Brazilian players went to the field wearing black jackets with the phrase "Uma Pele, Uma Identidade". The scarves will be sold in a sports betting academy anti-racism campaign.

Vinícius, accused of provoking fans and opponents in verbal fights with Spanish players after the game. He also pushed the Spanish defender Aymeric Laporte away while the match was interrupted!

While most of the attention was on Vinícius, it was Yamal who most threatened with speed and quick movements to overcome the Brazilian defenders.

Rodri put Spain ahead by converting a shot 13 minutes after Yamal made a run on the right and was tackled by João Gomes in the area.

Vinícius scored the first goal for Brazil on the 17th, but was easily saved by the Spanish goalkeeper Unai Simón.

Yamal set the goal at 36 minutes with Dani Olfo and Rodrigo brought Brazil back to 40 after an error by Simón.
