Hubert Hurkacz: dood van Roger Federers laatste profwedstrijd en livekandidaat op Wimbledon

No matter what Hubert Hurkacz goes on to achieve in his career, for many people his name will for ever be the answer to a quiz question: who beat Roger Federer in his last professional match? Three years ago, Hurkacz's 6-3, 7-6 (4), 6-0 victory over Federer in the quarter-final at Wimbledon was the end of the road for the Swiss, whose right knee, which was not properly recovered after a number of operations and was unable to play at the top level.

During the match Federer later said that his knee "was gone" and that "it was over". A year later, at an emotional farewell during the Laver Cup in London, he went into retirement.

For Hurkacz it was his greatest achievement in his career. Playing against Federer, the eight-time champion, on Centre Court at Wimbledon, was something that he had dreamed of as a child. It was an intimidating experience, but he stepped up to the plate. "Definitely I was stressed beforehand," Hurkacz says from Monaco, where he lives.

"I was very confident in my game at that moment, I knew that I was playing good tennis on grass at Wimbledon and with the name of the winner, Daniil [Medvedev] in five sets. I felt like I was in a good position and I tried to do the best I could and to compete."

"It was stressful, but I was also very motivated. As a child I always looked up to Roger, he was my idol. He won so much at Wimbledon and the chance to play against him there, that was something that I always wanted to do."

Three years later, at 6 feet 5 inches (1.96 m) tall, ranked number 7 in the world, he goes to Wimbledon in 2021 as a living contender to reach the final or even further. One of the few active players with titles on clay, grass and indoor and outdoor hardcourt, he has one of the best serves in the game and his style fits perfectly on grass, even though he has grown up playing on clay indoors, without warming up.

Roger Federer says goodbye to his lost match in the quarter-final of Wimbledon against Hubert Hurkacz.

"Grass is definitely my favorite surface," says the 27-year-old. "In Poland we don't have grass. We probably have a few private courts, but I wouldn't compare them to Wimbledon. Since I first played junior Wimbledon, I've always looked forward to the tournament. I always want to play on grass, try to make some nice shots. I really enjoy the atmosphere, the feeling of playing on grass."

Unmoved by the fact that he comes from the same country as the world number 1, Iga Swiatek. With five Grand Slam titles under her name, Swiatek is a national hero and all eyes are on her. As Hurkacz helps Swiatek get the attention she needs and allows her to do her thing.

"I don't have any reason to be here, Iga wins everything," says he. "It's also exciting to see how she plays on grass, what a person she is. It's really fantastic what she has done. I'm super lucky that we can play together in the Olympic Games, that's really special."

"Hubi", as he is known on Tour, has a soft touch, but his serve is deadly. According to Tennis Viz, he has held the ATP title in the men's category for 52 weeks in the men's "effectiveness", aces, service winners, unreachable services and an attacking position on the service.

His style fits perfectly on grass.

He reached the final of the ATP tournament in Halle, but lost to the world number 1, Jannik Sinner, in two tie-breaks, 13 aces in the final and 77 in the tournament. As he reports these figures at Wimbledon this year, he is likely to stop and misschien zelfs een nieuwe quizvraag te creëren.

"Ik ben ambitieus. Ik wil toernooien 1 winnen," zegt Hurkacz, die de kwartfinales bereikte op het Australian Open dit jaar. "Ik ben er trots op om op 1 elke ondergrond te hebben gewonnen. Met een beetje geluk kan ik nog goede dingen doen in de toekomst, zodat ik 1 herinnerd zal worden voor meer dan het verslaan van Roger," zegt hij, met een glimlach. "Maar het was echt bijzonder 1 om op Centre Court met Roger te spelen, alleen al het gevoel van de sfeer. Het was gekriebelend hard. Ik heb nog nooit iets zo'n dingen ervaren en ik ben blij dat ik het heb gekund."
