Real Zaragoza: The Famous Owners of Inter Miami and Jim Miller Take Over the Spanish Club
At the end of 2024, it was announced that the Spanish football club Real Zaragoza had been sold to the owners of Inter Miami and Jim Miller. This transfer marks a new era for the club, which competes in the Segunda División, the second tier of the Spanish league system.

The team, commonly known as Zaragoza, is based in Zaragoza, Aragón, Spain

. Its new owners also include other notable figures from the business and sports worlds. These includes Jim Miller, co-head of Ares's U.S. direct lending business; Jim Carpenter, chairman of the merchant banking boutique Riverside Management Group; Joseph Oughourlian; and Gustavo Serpa.

The Ares company, a leader in asset management, is making its move into the sports world as part of its expansion plans into unexplored markets, increasing its global presence. For the continued success of Real Zaragoza and Inter Miami, the club owners have decided to join arm-in-arm just before the start of the new sports season of 2024.

At the time of the sale, the club's debt had reached over US$ 36 million. This financial move now makes it possible for the club's debts to be paid and for a clearer future for the Real Zaragoza supporters and sympathizers. The news has brought hope to the club and placed it in the center of the sporting spotlight at the beginning of 2024.

In general, the Miller firm has over US$ 32 billion in available assets for underwritings. Its sport-focused portion aims at companies of different sizes and niches, reaching and providing financing for purchases, mergers, and acquisitions. This way, the club can look forward to solid financial prospects over the short and long term. So far, the process has been kept confidential in order to avoid leaks and ensure the best deals.

Currently, the firm's catalogue of underwritings includes more than 110 operations, with 38 having been confirmed already. In addition to this acquisition, possible future operations may also arise to help the creation and development of Real Zaragoza with healthy funds for future expenses.

It is important that the sale will provide maneuvering room for good moves on the part of the Spanish club. According to one club representative, "we are building something here to last a long time. We can become a definitive and lasting presence in Spanish football." With this acquisition, the future certainly seems promising for the Real Zaragoza, and its story will confidently be in good hands and heading for great times (evoking days of glory).

This is what lies behind the noteworthy acquisition of Real Zaragoza by Inter Miami and Jim Miller, with golden reflections for the club's future.

Juiz determina que Brian Wilson, fundador dos Beach Boys, necessita de conservadoria

Um juiz decidiu que o fundador dos Beach Boys e lendário músico Brian Wilson deve estar sob conservadoria pessoal e de saúde devido a um "transtorno neurocognitivo significativo", conforme a avaliação de um médico.

O juiz Gus T May, do Tribunal Superior de Los Angeles, autorizou a petição apresentada pela família e o círculo interno de Wilson após a morte de palpite vasco e londrina esposa, Melinda Ledbetter Wilson, que cuidava da maioria de suas tarefas e assuntos.

May determined that a conservatorship is necessary for Wilson's personal and medical decisions, as evidence indicates that Wilson consents to the arrangement and lacks the capacity to make healthcare decisions.

May appointed two of Wilson's longtime representatives, publicist Jean Sievers and manager LeeAnn Hard, as his conservators. There were no significant objections raised.

Two of Wilson's seven children, Carnie and Wendy Wilson from the singing group Wilson Phillips, requested through their attorney that all the children be included in a group text chain about their father and be consulted on medical decisions. The judge granted the stipulations.

A doctor's declaration filed with the petition in February said Wilson has a "major neurocognitive disorder", is taking medication for dementia and "is unable to properly provide for his own personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter".

Sievers and Hard have had a close relationship with Wilson and his wife for many years. The court-appointed attorney, Robert Frank Cipriano, said Wilson acknowledged the need for the conservatorship and trusts the judgment of the two women.

Cipriano's report to the court said he visited Wilson at his "impeccably well maintained residence in Beverly Hills", where he lives with two daughters and a long-term live-in caregiver.

Wilson can move around with help from a walker and the caregiver, Cipriano said, and he has a good sense of who he is, where he is and when it is, but could not name his children beyond the two that live with him. He said Wilson was "mostly difficult to understand and gave very short responses to questions and comments".

The family statement at the time said the decision was made to ensure "there will be no extreme changes" and that "Brian will be able to enjoy all of his family and friends and continue to work on current projects".

Judges in California can appoint a conservator for a person, their finances – referred to as the estate – or both, as was the case with Britney Spears. Spears' case brought attention – much of it negative – to conservatorships and prompted legislative changes.

The Wilson petition did not seek a conservator of the estate because his assets are in a trust, with Hard as a trustee.

Wilson, one of the most deeply revered and acclaimed co-founders, producers, arrangers, and chief songwriters of the Beach Boys, has struggled with mental health and substance abuse issues throughout his career.

He was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1988 along with his bandmates, including his brothers Carl e Dennis
