Corinthians prepara melhor campanha sul-americana com Breno BidonAfter the injury of Maycon, Breno Bidon becomes the new hope of Corinthians in the midfield. With his good performance, he has become a key player in the team.

Breno Bidon, 19, has been highlighted in the reserve team and was recently promoted to the professional team. He impressed the technical commission with his excellent play during training and was chosen to replace Maycon, who suffered a muscle injury in the thigh. Breno debuted for the professional team in the match against São Bernardo and showed his skills, which led to his nomination as the starter in the next match against América Mineiro. He did not disappoint and played well, leading his team to victory. He has become a starter in the team and is expected to play in the upcoming match against Racing.

Antônio Oliveira, the team's coach, is optimistic about Breno's potential and says that his performance speaks for itself. The player has a contract until 2029. Antonio declares that the player has shown his quality and is deserving of the opportunity. The coach also mentions that Breno has good physical and tactical conditions, which makes him a valuable asset to the team. Moreover, he praises the 19-year-old's maturity.

The Corinthians are preparing for their next match against Racing, which takes place on Tuesday, at 21:30, in the Centenario stadium, in Uruguay. The team is very confident in their skills, and they are focused on winning the Sul-Americana cup. The coach also talks about how he is looking forward to the Cup and that their main objective is to win the trophy.

In summary, Breno Bidon's hard work paid off, and he is now the new prospect of the Corinthians. The players are focused on the game against Racing and are doing their best to win the match.
