Mikel Arteta insisted that Arsenal has the belief to be good enough to win a Premier League title, but must prove it by beating Manchester United and ending their poor record at Old Trafford.

The only Arsenal victory in their last 16 trips to face United was in front of no spectators, while Erik ten Hag won the corresponding match last season which was Arsenal's first defeat.

But with his players proving they learned from their experiences after losing the title to Manchester City last season, he said he kept the pressure on Pep Guardiola to beat United.

"If you want to win the Premier League and big trophies, you have to go to these grounds and impose yourself", said Arteta. "This is our journey on Sunday".

Asked if there was a moment when he thought for the first time Arsenal were capable of winning the league, he said: "I started to feel that way last season when we became very consistent and ambitious. I could see the standards were not falling day after day".

"Obviously, at the moment when you start adding other pieces to the puzzle and the players start to gain more experience. They start improving continuously; You build some momentum! Around the club there is also this feeling of being able to do it: we are good enough to do it." It was a journey

Arsenal celebrates their Premier League title at Old Trafford after Sylvain Wiltord's goal secured a 1-0 win over Manchester United.

Arsenal won the Premier League title at Old Trafford, thanks to goal scorer Sylvain Wiltord but only managed four wins during the Championship era – all by a 1-0 margin. Arteta revealed last month he was consulting Arsene Wenger about how to overcome the barriers in a title race and with a former manager who emphasized the importance of margins.

But while ten Hag faced criticism from former players like Paul Scholes last week after a 4-0 win over Crystal Palace, on Tuesday (21) he has heard from the legends of the team during this season.

"It's very important. They are a big part of the club's history", said Arteta. "Whatever it is that they can add to the team and the staff, be it stability, inspiration or experience, it's all welcome! They are getting closer and closer to us; they are on the field many times too". It is very important for our club."
