Bonuses

partypoker invites new players to take advantage of their welcome bonus offer, which makes up to £250 available, contingent on the size of your first deposits. The offer is triggered with a minimum deposit of £10, and is restricted to new customers only. As is the norm, terms and conditions do apply to the bonus, and it's worth familiarising yourself with these in more detail before deciding to sign up.

The bonus

is awarded within 48 hours of your first eligible deposit, which must be made within the first 120 days. The bonus is paid out as a 100% match on the size of your first deposit, and there is a window of 90 days from receipt of the bonus for you to release the full amount of the bonus, which is paid in 10 increments.

The bonus is tied to the loyalty points you accrue in this first period, at a rate of 1 loyalty point perR$1 rake generated, and each time the value of the deposit is earned 0.12 times, you are awarded a 10% share of the bonus amount – equivalent to a 12x multiple.

This is a little complicated, but it's nothing out of the ordinary for poker bonuses. While the bonus amount is decent, the terms are a little restrictive, and of course, hard to keep track of – luckily, partypoker does this for you, with the bonus section in your account showing your progress towards meeting the withdrawal criteria.

In terms of the bonus release clauses, this is an OK time frame for players who are serious about their poker, although newbies might find it a little on the slow side. Otherwise, it's an OK bonus comparatively, and stands as another good reason to make partypoker your first choice.
