Showtime Hold'em is similar to the globally popular game of Texas Hold'em, but with one crucial difference: all folded cards are left face-up for the duration of the hand. The result is more information available to each player, leading to new possibilities and greater depth of strategy.

Sure, here's a possible rewritten article in a more conversational tone:
Hey there, Santos FC fans!

I've got some news for you! Our team is getting ready for the big game against Palmeiras this Sunday. We're feeling confident after our 1-0 win in the first leg, but we know it's not going to be easy.

We've been working hard in training, focusing on our physical fitness and tactics. Our coach, Fábio Carille, has been drilling us on set pieces, which have been a strength for us this season. But we're not underestimating Palmeiras. We know they're a strong team, and we're preparing for a tough game.

Julio Furch is still a doubt for the game due to an inflammation in his tendon and adductor. We're hoping he'll be able to make it, but Fábio Carille doesn't usually start players who haven't trained with the group during the week.

Here's our probable lineup:

João Paulo; Aderlan, Joaquim, Gil e Felipe Jonatan; João Schmidt, Diego Pituca e Giuliano; Otero, Morelos (Furch) e Guilherme.

What do you think, Santos FC fans? Are you excited for the game? Let us know in the comments!

Oh, and don't forget to listen to our podcast! It's all about Santos FC, and it's a great way to stay up-to-date with all the latest news and analysis.

That's it for now, folks. Let's get ready to take on Palmeiras and bring home that Paulistão title!
