The first is the "open for all freeroll" that is run by a poker site and is designed to attract new players. The second is the "private freeroll" that is run by an independent person, usually a poker site affiliate. In this case you need a freeroll password.

There are usually no restrictions when participating in freerolls. But sometimes players may be required to make a deposit to prevent them from simply entering any freeroll and then walking away with the prize pool.

While freerolls are a great way to play poker for free, they can also be a lot of fun. In addition to the chance to win real money, freerolls often offer a variety of different prizes, ranging from entry into bigger tournaments to cash prizes and even gadgets and other prizes.

In addition, the poker rooms often have a section on their website where players can find a list of upcoming freerolls.

You can also search for freerolls on our site. We have a list of upcoming freerolls, as well as a list of past freerolls.
