São Paulo's Next Big Sale: Pablo Maia, Inspired by Casemiro, Emerges as a Promising Talent Pablo Maia, a promising talent of São Paulo, is being touted as the club's next big sale. The defensive midfielder has recently earned a spot in the Brazilian national team and has been a regular starter for the Tricolor. Inspired by Casemiro, another player who made a name for himself in Europe after starting his career at São Paulo, Pablo Maia is eager to create his own successful legacy on the old continent.

In a recent interview with SPFC Play, Pablo Maia expressed his admiration for Casemiro, stating that he has always looked up to him for his professionalism and successful career. The young midfielder praised Casemiro's journey from the São Paulo youth academy to becoming one of the best midfielders in the world.

Several English clubs, including Fulham, have shown interest in signing Pablo Maia in recent years, but São Paulo has decided to keep him and prioritize a sporting return, resulting in winning the Copa do Brasil for the first time. Under the guidance of coach Rogerio Ceni, the team has also won the Supercopa Rei, with Pablo Maia playing a crucial role in both triumphs.

Born in Cotia, an industrial town near São Paulo, Pablo Maia took advantage of all the resources and professionals he could find, leading to his rapid development and success at the youth level. Casemiro's inspirational career has prompted Pablo Maia to follow in his footsteps and create great opportunities for himself in Europe, a journey that has become a more tangible reality for the young midfielder.

Now a first-team regular and a two-time Brazilian international, Pablo Maia looks forward to an exciting future. After the recent friendlies against England in Wembley and Spain at Santiago Bernabéu, he will return to action this week for São Paulo as they face Talleres in a Copa Libertadores match. Keen on repeating last season's Copa do Brasil and Supercopa Rei title achievements, Pablo Maia aims to help his team win the most prestigious tournament in South America this year.
