The global players union for professional footballers has confirmed two Ukrainian stars have died during Russia's invasion.

FIFPRO revealed on Wednesday Vitalii Sapylo, 21, and Dmytro Martynenko, 25, had been killed in Ukraine.

"Our thoughts are with the families, friends, and teammates of young Ukrainian footballers Vitalii Sapylo and Dmytro Martynenko, football's first reported losses in this war," FIFPRO tweeted. "May they both rest in peace."

Sapylo played for Karpaty Lviv's youth team as a goalkeeper and the club paid tribute to him in a statement that said: "We cherish the eternal memory of this hero."

Sapylo's father Roman reportedly told German publication BILD: "He was such a happy, funloving boy. It was an air strike by that damn Putin. He took my child from me.

"He really wanted to fight. First one tank broke down, then the second. But under no circumstances did he want to leave the front."

Martynenko played for Ukrainian second-division side FC Gostomel.

On Wednesday FIFPRO's General Secretary Jonas Baer-Hoffmann spoke to BBC radio about the tragedy.

"We've had confirmation from the ground (of their deaths) which is of course incredibly sad," he said. "We don't have clear information on how many of our members are really currently involved in the conflict.

"Of course there are still hundreds of Ukrainian players, male and female, in the country so it's very difficult right now to get an overview how many of them are at what degree of risk.

"Our union on the ground is effectively working out of bunkers and cellars.

"These two players have passed away as part of this military invasion.

"They're showing how football and sport in general is just an afterthought because they're just individuals who unfortunately got caught up in this terrible war."

Meanwhile, the International Biathlon Union (IBU) confirmed 19-year-old professional skier Yevhen Malyshev had been killed in the fighting.

"Above all, the IBU expresses its deepest condolences on the loss of former Ukrainian biathlete Yevhen Malyshev (19), who died this week serving in the Ukrainian military," the union wrote. "The Executive Board once again condemns the Russian attacks on Ukraine and the support provided by Belarus."

Tennis star Sergiy Stakhovsky, who famously beat Roger Federer at Wimbledon in 2013, has returned to Kyiv to take part in the struggle to repel the Russians.

"I know how to use the gun. If I'll have to, I'll have to. I pretty much hope that I won't have to use the gun," Stakhovsky told BBC Radio 4's Today program.

Questioned about the difficulty of leaving his wife Anfisa and children at their home in Hungary, he said: "I'm still not sure how I've done it.

"I know that it's extremely hard on my wife. My kids don't know that I'm here. They don't understand war. They're too little to understand what's going on."

Three-weight boxing champion Vasiliy Lomachenko is believed to have joined the fight too. The 34-year-old was photographed wearing military uniform with a rifle across his shoulder in a post on his Facebook page.

World heavyweight champion Oleksandr Usyk, who defeated Anthony Joshua in September, is also said to have left London to take part in the war.

Asked by the BBC to confirm whether Usyk had gone to Ukraine to fight, his promoter Alexander Krassyuk said "every Ukrainian joined the defence".

Ukrainian heavyweight icon Vitali Klitschko, the current Mayor of Kyiv, will serve in the war. The 50-year-old's brother Wladimir has also signed up as a reserve for the territorial forces.

"I am Ukrainian, and I am a fighter," Wladimir Klitschko said on Monday. "Our strongest force is the will and desire to live in a free country, and we have chosen the direction we want to go."

Dame Judi Dench critica a los avisos previos de contenido sensible en el teatro

No vayan al teatro, ha dicho Dame Judi Dench a los fanáticos "sensibles", en respuesta a las advertencias previas al contenido sensible en las presentaciones teatrales.

Estas advertencias, que informan a la audiencia sobre contenido potencialmente angustiante, como abuso, violencia y ruidos fuertes, han sido objeto de controversia en la industria en los últimos años.

"¿Así que lo hacen?", dijo Dench en una entrevista con Radio Times. "¡Dios mío, debe ser una advertencia previa al contenido sensible bastante larga antes de 'El rey Lear' o 'Tito Andrónico'!" La ganadora del Oscar de 89 años agregó: "Puedo ver por qué existen, pero si eres tan sensible, no vayas al teatro, porque puedes estar muy conmocionado. ¿Dónde está la sorpresa de verlo y entenderlo a tu manera?"

Comentarios de Gregory Doran

Sus comentarios se producen después de que Gregory Doran, el ex director artístico de la Royal Shakespeare Company, advirtiera a los miembros del público ansiosos que eviten las obras de teatro para no verse afectados por el contenido angustiante.

"¿Cómo se hace [con las advertencias de contenido] para 'Tito Andrónico'?", Dijo Doran. "Simplemente no vengas. No vengas si estás preocupado, si estás ansioso - aléjate."

La comunidad teatral dividida

Las advertencias de contenido han dividido a la comunidad teatral, con algunos que las comparan con las advertencias sobre iluminación estroboscópica, que pueden desencadenar convulsiones, mientras que otros dicen que disminuyen el poder del arte y la literatura para escandalizar y incomodar.

Otros que se han pronunciado en contra de ellas incluyen a Christopher Biggins y Ralph Fiennes, quienes sugirieron que las audiencias modernas se habían "ablandado demasiado". "El teatro necesita estar vivo y en el presente. Es el shock, lo inesperado, lo que hace que el teatro sea emocionante", agregó Fiennes.
